

Mauri Oho Mauri Ora - A hikoī of transformation

Research Seminar, guest speaker and panel discussion

Wednesday 13 September, 5.30 – 8.00pm

MH Building, Room 108

AUT South Campus, 640 Great South Road, Manukau.

Speakers include

Adjunct Professor Amohia Boulton, Director, Whakauae Research Services,
“He Tomokanga Hou: A Case Study of Wellbeing”

Professor Denise Wilson, Co-Director, Taupua Waiora Centre for Māori Health Research,
“Family violence prevention and the place of community”

Danielle Oakes, Pouarahi, Te Ahi Kaa Indigenous Health Solutions,
“How we engage with Māori through a kaupapa framework to eliminate suicide from our whakapapa”

Dr Isaac Warbrick, Senior Research Fellow and Co-Director at Taupua Waiora Centre for Māori Health Research, “Whakapapa and physical activity”

Queries: colleen.leauanae@aut.ac.nz

RSVP: tidah.leaupepe@aut.ac.nz

All are welcome to attend this free event - parking available - light refreshments.

NGĀ MIHI NUI KI A KOUTOU

Office of Māori Advancement, Taupua Waiora Centre for Māori Health Research
South Campus Global Goals Series